1 DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION. The definitions and rules of interpretation set forth below shall apply to the Conditions.

- a "Buyer" means the person or entity intending to purchase Goods from the Seller.
- b "Conditions" are the standard terms and conditions for the sale of the Goods.
- c "Contract" is a written document for the sale and purchase of the Goods. The Contract shall incorporate by reference the Conditions into the document.
- d "Incoterms" are the international rules for the interpretation of trade terms of the International Chamber of Commerce as in force at the day when the Contract is executed.
- e "Goods" refers to those items of personal property identified in the Contract and sold to Buyer by Seller.
- f "Lead-Time" is the period of time (in Working Business Days) presented in the Price Quote necessary to prepare the goods for collection by the buyer. It commences from the date the Seller provides an Order Acknowledgement to the buyer or the date the payment is received from the buyer when the Seller presents a Proforma Invoice . Working Business Days include Monday through Friday excluding USA and UK Bank Holidays.
- g "Seller" is Aviation Tool Pooling LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (and referred to as either Seller or "AviaPool").
- h "Price Quote" is the price quotation from Seller for the sale of the Goods to the Buyer.

2 BASIS OF THE SALE.

- a Seller shall sell and Buyer shall purchase the Goods in accordance with:
 - i any PO issued by Buyer that is accepted by Seller; or
 - ii any Price Quote issued by Seller that is accepted by Buyer.
- b Any change to the Goods as directed by Buyer (each an "Engineering Change Order"), shall be written, supersede any contrary provision in the PO or Price Quote, be executed by both Seller and Buyer and include the following items:
 - i a detailed description of the change;
 - ii its Price;
 - iii the time the Price is to be paid; and
 - iv the revised delivery date of the Goods (if necessary).
- c If provisions of documents, PO's/Price Quote's or other written correspondence (that are initiated by either Buyer or Seller) relating to the sale/purchase of the Goods contradict one another, the Conditions shall govern and supersede those contradictory provisions of all other documents, PO's/Price Quote's or other written correspondence unless the parties specifically and in writing agree otherwise.
- d Seller reserves the right to provide the Buyer with the latest OEM Revision of the Goods at the same or lesser price than originally quoted without notice. All other revisions to the Conditions require that Buyer is provided at least 15 days prior notice. Buyer may not revise the Conditions.
- e In executing a Contract, Buyer acknowledges, agrees and confirms that:
 - i it is not relying upon any representations or warranties concerning the Goods not written in the Contract or the Conditions; and
 - ii it has satisfied itself as to the fitness for the particular purpose of the Goods.
- f Any typographical, clerical or other error or omission in any sales literature, quotation, price list, acceptance of offer, invoice or other document or information issued by Seller shall be subject to correction without any liability on the part of Seller.

3 PRICE QUOTATIONS, PURCHASE ORDERS, CANCELLATIONS AND RETURNS.

- a The quantity, quality and description of the Goods and any specification for the Goods shall be those set out in Seller's Price Quote (if accepted by Buyer) or Buyer's Purchase Order (PO) (if accepted by Seller).
- b Buyer shall be responsible to Seller for ensuring the accuracy of the terms of each PO and Price Quote (including any applicable specifications) and for giving Seller any necessary information relating to the Goods within a sufficient time to enable Seller to perform the Contract in accordance with its terms and conditions.

- c No PO that has been accepted by Seller (via electronic delivery of either a pro-forma invoice or order acknowledgement from Seller), may be cancelled by Buyer except at Seller's sole and absolute discretion. If Seller agrees to cancel such a PO, Buyer shall pay Seller a restocking fee determined on a case by case basis as a percentage of the sales price.
- d Returns are subject to Buyer receiving a Return Material Authorization (RMA) from Seller after notification of desire to return within thirty days of shipment date. Any RMA is valid for thirty days from date presented to buyer from seller. Items not returned within thirty days will not be processed further without a fresh approval. All returns are considered cancellations and are subject to the same terms herewith (section 3c).

4 SHIP POINT, DELIVERY, TITLE AND RISK OF LOSS.

- a Each line item under your order will ship from the global region presented on your quotation.
- b All product deliveries follow Incoterms rule "Ex Works - EXW" - whereby Buyer bears all risk of transport of goods to their final destination unless otherwise agreed to by Seller and Buyer at time of order placement, in writing, presented on the Seller's Order Acknowledgement/Proforma Invoice. Seller shall assist buyer in the coordination of shipment of the Goods to the destination presented on the Buyer's Purchase Order.
- c In addition to the Price, Buyer shall be responsible for all costs of transportation, clearance, transit and other freight (collectively "Freight") from Seller's designated place of availability and issues including export and foreign country import compliance matters involving the Goods.
- d Notwithstanding any provision in the Contract or Conditions to the contrary, the delivery lead time of the Goods presented in the Price Quote by Seller is Seller's best estimate at the time the PO is accepted by Seller and may be delayed for events and/or circumstances beyond its reasonable control such as (but not limited to), manufacturer delays and those described or listed in Force Majeure at Condition 10. Seller is not liable for any fees / charges incurred or assessed by the buyer for any goods whether ultimately delivered or not delivered.
- e If upon readiness of a customer's order, no collection or shipping details are provided. A fee will be charged at a rate of $25.00 per day, per item. This charge will take effect if the customer fails to provide sufficient information to have the order shipped within fourteen days from the date the shipping documents are emailed to the customer. Though Aviapool will make a sincere effort to consolidate shipments when possible, it is solely at the discretion of Aviapool. Otherwise each item ordered may be required to ship individually.
- f Title to the Goods and risk of loss shall pass from Seller to Buyer when the Goods are loaded by the common carrier for shipment to Buyer's Facility. The physical loading of the Goods by the common carrier shall constitute Seller's "delivery" of the Goods to Buyer. This transaction constitutes a sale "FOB selling point" and/or ExWorks.

5 PURCHASE PRICE OF THE GOODS.

- a The purchase price of the Goods (the "Price") shall be that quoted to Buyer in US Dollars ("USD") at the date of acceptance of the PO or Price Quote, subject to Condition 5(b). The Price shall not include Freight. All Prices quoted by Seller are valid for 30 days only or until earlier acceptance by Buyer, after which time they may not be altered by Seller without giving notice to Buyer. Minimum order value for the Goods is USD $250.00 USD plus Freight. All quotes for the Goods are subject to prior sale.
- b Seller reserves the right, by giving 15 days notice to Buyer at any time before delivery of the Goods, to increase the Price of the Goods to reflect any increase in the cost to Seller that is due to any factor beyond the control of Seller (such as, without limitation, any foreign exchange fluctuation, currency regulation, significant increase in the costs of labour, materials or other costs of manufacture) quantities or specifications for the Goods which is requested by Buyer, or any delay caused by any instructions of Buyer or failure of Buyer to give Seller adequate information or instructions.
- c Buyer shall deliver to Seller a certificate evidencing the exemption of the Goods sale from the collection of Michigan sales tax (if applicable). Buyer agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Seller (now and later) from any sales, use, value added tax, customs clearance, duties, country specific fees or tax obligations arising from the Contract and the sale/purchase of Goods. In addition, applicable taxes may be added by Seller should the country or transit destination of the Goods be amended prior to shipment and billing.

6 PAYMENT TERMS.

- a Subject to Condition 6(b) and any special terms agreed to by Buyer and Seller, Buyer shall pay the Price in certified funds or by wire transfer not more than thirty (30) days after delivery of the Goods to Buyer's Facility.
- b Seller reserves the right to require payment in full for the Goods in advance of delivery to Buyer. Seller shall retain an unsecured security interest in the Goods sold to Buyer until the Price is paid in full to Seller.
- c Seller shall charge Buyer a fee for use of the credit card equal $45.00. The entirety of any amount over $5,000 is subject to a 3% convenience fee.
- d Seller reserves the right on all past due balances to invoice a 1.5% per month finance charge.
- e Buyer is responsible for any and all remittance fees from banks or other methods. A $45.00 fee will be included on each invoice to cover said charges. Buyer may waive this fee if the are certain no fees will be incurred by Seller in regards to Buyer's invoice. However, if fees are incurred, Seller will require payment of these fees prior to delivery.

7 EXPORT TERMS.

- a Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, any term or expression that is defined in or given a particular meaning by the provisions of Incoterms shall have the same meaning in the Conditions. If there is any contradiction between the provisions of Incoterms and the Conditions, the latter shall govern.
- b Where the Goods are supplied for export from the United States of America, the provisions in Condition 7 shall apply (subject to any special terms agreed upon otherwise by Buyer and Seller) notwithstanding any other provision of the Conditions.

If the Goods have been delivered but not paid for, the Price shall become immediately due and payable notwithstanding any previous agreement or arrangement to the contrary. If any of the Goods have not yet been delivered, Seller may sell the Goods at the best price readily obtainable and (after deducting all reasonable storage and selling expenses) account to Buyer for the excess over the Price under the Contract or charge Buyer for any shortfall below the Price of the Contract.

Seller shall notify Buyer as soon as is reasonably possible after the commencement of such occurrence, setting forth the full particulars, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch, and shall promptly give notice to Buyer of the cessation of such occurrence. No payment shall be made by Buyer to Seller for any expenses incurred by Seller
